March 16, 2020

Hall Financial Advisors is announcing today we have made a decision to hold our meetings on the phone or via video conference in an effort to do our part to slow the opportunity for transmission of COVID-19.

Your team at Hall Financial Advisors will continue to serve you from both office locations and we have developed multiple plans to make sure that your experience with our firm will not be disrupted. We are a resource and available to you as this situation evolves. We care deeply about the safety of our clients, our team members and our community; our team has carefully considered this decision. We are here for you and are working tirelessly to navigate these markets and deliver service to you that is second to none. This decision will not have an impact on any day to day service you receive from your team at Hall Financial Advisors.

We appreciate your understanding as we do our part to mitigate any potential spread of the virus in our community.

Your team at Hall Financial Advisors is fully committed and we are here for you.

With gratitude,

Chris Hall, Managing Principal
